HEAVY RUN OF CATTLE AT LIBERTY

OFFICE OF PITTSBURG DISPATCH, MONDAY, August 19, 1889. The improvement noted last Monday still continues and is even more marked. Quality of receipts was above the average for a few weeks past. A fairly active demand is reported, and markets in general were firmer, and on desirable grades of butcher stock there was an advance.

Cattle. Total receipts were 726 head, of which number 223 head were for the Winter & Dellenbach abattoir, leaving 503 head for the market proper.

to 1.500 pounds, were sold at $5, and a few choice reached $5 10; medium weights, 1,350 to 1,450 pounds, were quoted at $4 75@4 85: do, 1,200 to pounds, were quoted at $4 75@4 95: do, 1,200 to 1,300 pounds, $4 35@4 70: prime light weights, 900 to 1,100 pounds, $4 10@4 35: common to fair thin and rough steers, $1 25@ 3 75. Fresh cows were slow and dull at last week's prices, viz, $25 00@40 60 per head. Calves were in very light supply, and demand was also light. The range was $26% e per pound. Bulls, stags and dry cows we're quoted at $3.@4c per pound. Receipts from Chicago—Winter & Delienbach, 223 head: A. Fromm, 51; E. Wolf, 18; L. Zeipler, 120; L. Gerson, 114; L. Rothschild & Co., 104. From Ohio—8. Lowenstein, 33 head; J. Sheppard, 17; J. Langdon, 17. From Pennsylvania—Various owners, 8 head. Total, 726; last week, 621: previous week, 403.

A leading Herr's island driver thusputs the situation of markets to-day: "All good cattle on hand sold quick, but the proportion of good grades on hand was small. The range was $3.50 65 10, the latter figure being the best price wild for chaine beeves. There were four or grades on hand was small. The range was $3.50 $25.10, the latter figure being the best price paid for choice beeves. There were four or two loads of good cattle ranging from 1,300 to 1,500 pounds, but the bulk of receipts were Sheep and Lambs.

Sheep and Lambs.

Supply was slightly larger than last Monday, demand was active and prices were firm at last week's range. Really prime stock was not to be had. The quality of sheep and lambs coming to our markets the past two or three week has been below par. Choice stock would have readily commanded better prices than our quotations below.

Western and Pennsylvania wethers sold at $4.75@$4.85, medium to good, do $4.25@4.50; common to fair, $3.50@8.75; lambs, 45@@$4.0 per pound.

The movement was fair at a shade higher range of prices than last week. Needy & Smith, who handled the bulk of this week's supplies, report sales at $1 60025 10. Reports of sales last week at $5.25 which went over the country are contradicted by those who ought to know. No such prices were reached either last week or this. Receints from Ohio-Needy & Smith, 206 head; R. Williamson, 14; J. Langdon, 47. From Pennsylvania-William Garvir, 19 head: J. Reiber, 15; D. O. Pisor, 11; F. Cruik-shank, 52. Total, 584 head; last week, 144; previous week, 253.

At East Liberty there was a very large run of local cattle to-day, the total being 140 loads against 125 loads last Monday.

Quality was scarcely up to average. The few choice steers on the market were higher than last week. The highest price reached was the for car load lots.

Had not week. The injurest price reached was the for car load lots.

Common grades showed no improvement on last week's prices. There was an unusually heavy run of lambs at Liberty yards and markets ruled easy at lower prices than last Mon-Sheep were also easier and a grade below

HOW TO MAKE BAD WATER HEALTHFUL

There is something in the August weather that is peculiarly depressing and inimical to business. Everything is done in a perfunctory sort of a way, denoting lack of energy in the doer. Under these circumstances a rushing trade is not to be expected. The performance of routine duties is about as much as the average man cares to go through with. August is a sort of middle ground between the summer and the fall business, affording weary brains and bodies an opportunity to recuperate. If men were to go on the year round at high pressure they would soon break down, enterprise would languish, and the marvelous development of the country cease entirely, or go for ward at a snail's pace, Pittsburg is laboring under this depressing influence, but to a less extent, probably, than any other city in the country. Still it is no-ticeable in the smaller volume of transactions as compared with previous months. There is no other reason for this than the weather. In no other reason for this that the weather. In ancient times it was said to affect the gods. Jove's thunders were less ominous, and the assemblies of the delties on Mount Olympus were characterized by less vivacity. Money is plenty. The same people are here. There is no scarcity of merchantable commodities, and yet there is little demand comparatively for the one, or desire to do anything on the part of the other. The condo anything on the part of the other. The conditions of trade have undergone no particular change, certainly not enough to account for the general apathy. Business is not flat on its back. There is a great deal going on in the concrete, but there is no snap in it. Nobody wants to expand, or do more than is necessary to keep things mov-ing. This condition will soon pass away. Au-tumn is near at hand. There is a crispness in the air of September, as it comes down from the snow-clad mountains and icy lakes and rivers of the North—a suggestion of frost and good appetites—which makes men feel the thrillings of a new life and gives them greater capacity for work. It is gratifying to know that the business men of Pittsburg are full of hope and faith in the future, which is full of promise of greater thungs than they have yet promise of greater things than they have yet

According to the introduction to Poor's Manual of Railroads for 1889, just issued, the total number of miles of railroad in the United States at the close of 1888 was 156,082, of which 7,028 miles were constructed during the year—the rate of increase being 4.7 per cent. It is not only in England that the scarcity of coke is causing serious inconvenience to iron manufacturers. In Germany, Belgium and France the limited supplies of the fuel are pro-ducing something akin to consternation among iron masters. It is in Germany, perhaps, that the threatened coke famine has been most severely felt, for in that country metallurgical progress has, for some years past, been progressing by "leaps and bounds." The demand for coke has consequently grown proportion ately, but as little or no provision has been made for this "boom" in the German iron in-dustries, the coke supplies fall far short of the requirements of the iron masters.

This peculiar turn of affairs in the Father land, says the Iron and Coal Trades Journal, seems to have been reproduced in Belgium, where the improvement in the iron trade has recently become almost as pronounced as in Germany. Though the price of coke in Bel-gium has not yet reached the figure that it has touched in England, the advance is yet sufficiently great to give cause for serious alarm to the Belgian iron masters. Coke in the Liege district, we believe, is now quoted at about 8s. emanded, and los has in some instances been obtained. It is quite probable, however, that the price will reach 16s. or 17s. before the close of the year, so limited are the supplies at the present moment. It is no secret that some of the furnaces now out of blast, both in Belgium and the Grand Duchy, would be put in opera-tion to-morrow if only the needful coke supply were forthcoming, but that is now out of the The erection of coke ovens involves consider able outlay, and uncertainty as to the duration of the demand must necessitate extreme cau tion on the part of the coke manufacturers, who are naturally chary of incurring expense, where the extent of the requirements may collapse at any moment. It is true that up to the present the demand for coke shows no signs of falling off, thanks to the marvelous activity of the iron trade abroad as well as at home, but that the future is not viewed without misgiving is shown by the fact that coke producers still refuse to provide facilities for increasing their output, although the indications favor the assumption that the demand for most descrip-tions of iron is far more likely to increase than diminish for some time to come. The Iron Trade Review, of Cleveland, gives some excellent advice to these engaged in hot, heavy work, in regard to the use of water to allay their thirst. It is especially applicable to mill men. The Review says:

"In Pittsburg there is necessarily an immense quantity of water drank, inasmuch as mill men quantity of water drains, insanden as mill men must drench their innards, whereby to supply the wherewithal for perspiration. The water aupplied the city from the two rivers is not nearly so defective in purity as sensationalists have asserted; but, however that may be, it could be improved as a thirst allayer and at the same time be, in a great measure, made as Rome, headed by a preiste holding high rank in the Propaganda. A delegation of distinguished laymen from the Pacific slope have already sent requests that seats be reserved.

An Order to That Effect Issued by Acting Research Propagation of the same time be, in a great measure, made as healthful as the costly mineral springs' waters. This can be accomplished by the use of salt. Enough salt in drinking water to be perceptible to the taste removes the insupidity, and is not only wholesome, but tends to keep the stomach and bowels in good order. When these organs are all right the remainder of the man cannot be assailed by the ordinary discases, inasmuch as good blood and open pores result.

the drug stores, have from 875 to 820 grains of sait to the gallon. Other waters vary from 300 to 500 grains. Take this salt out, and these waters would be little, if any more, curative than plain spring water. The best charge of salt for health and thirst satisfaction is proba-bly about 150 grains to the gailon. This would taste slightly in water, but after a few days' use the flavor would not be noticed." LOCAL SECURITIES.

Not Much Doing, But Brokers Hopeful— West Virglain Gas Stronger. In the absence of Captain Barbour, John D. The excellent outlook in the territory controlled by this company is the bullishiglement of this stock. "It may be as they say," remarked a broker, "but I will wait till they make a strike or two before purchasing. Cyclorama made a little spurt in the afternoon, 7 being bid without acceptance. "We will have a boom in this property pretty soon," remarked a broker. "The earnings are greater than people suspect."

So far as the rest of the list was concerned, there was neither feature nor news, but an evident undercurrent of atrength indicating belief in a radical change for the better before long. "We will have plenty of business ten days or two weeks from this time," said a broker who smokes good cigars. Bids, offers and sales were:

At the morning call 50 shares of Electric brought 52. In the afternoon 100 shares of Wheeling Gas went at 30, 50 at 30%, and 10 Electric at 52. Henry M. Long bought 110 shares of Electric at 51 to 52.

The total sales of stocks at New York yesterday were 128,154 shares, including: Atchison, 5,628; Louisville and Nashville, 3,627; Missouri Pacific, 4,500; Northern Pacific, preferred, 3,632; Reading, 14,500; St. Paul, 21,500; Union Pacific, 4,210.

fer a Change.

At one of the principal banks visited yesterday the remark was made: "We are doing very little to-day. Nobody seems to want money. We would shut up shop and go a-fishing if we were not afraid that about the time the key was turned in the door someone would bob up and want something. I guess we'll stand it out. I don't think it will be long until business will take a turn for the better."

At two or three other banks more encouraging information was obtained. They were doing something in the way of discounting, and reported an average clerical business. "With all the idle money in the country," said a cashier, "I can see no reason to apprehend a stringency, which some Eastern financiers affect to believe is among the possibilities, if not probabilities. I think this talk is intended to bull the stock market." The bank clearings were $2,282,362 52 and the balances $427,342 99.

Money on call at New Y ork yesterday was easy at 2 to 4½ per cent, last loan 2 closed offered at 2. Psime mercantile paper, $4.67. Sterling exchange dull but steady at $4.54% for 60-day bills and $4.57% for demand.

New York Turns a Weak Oil Market Into a

Strong One. Bearish field news caused a dull and weak opening at the Petroleum Exchange yesterday. Without crossing it, the market hung very closely to the dollar line all day. Oil City sold early and Pittsburg bought, but on a limited scale. In the afternoon New York bought in Oil City, getting about 50,000 parrels of the stuff

This caused prices to move up rapidly, and turned a weak market into a strong one. The close was firm at 3½c below the best price of the day. About 5,090 barrels of cash oil brought 99½c. Saturday's clearings were 506,000 barrels.

HENRY CLEWS says: "The money market is a source of caution. Owing to early anticipations of tight money, the danger has been largely averted, and there is no longer any feeling of apprehension. At the same time, there is strong reason for prudence. We are of the opinion, therefore, that more caution is being exercised; at least until the future of the money market can be calculated upon with more safety, or until an investment or outside speculative demand appears for stocks at present prices."

New York, August 19.—The stock market to-day felt the full effect of the bad bank statement of Saturday, and the extraordinary cut in rates announced after the close of business on that day. The market, however, after the first drop at the opening, was extremely well held, and while prices gave way slightly there was no pressure to sell and the business done was on a par with that of the latter days of last week showing the heldings of stock ware. week, showing the holdings of stock were not frightened, and that strong hands held not only the stocks but the short contracts. The full effect was shown in stocks in which the money rates will have most effect, and the trusts were the weakest features of the day, and developed more animation than they have shown in a mooth. Cotton oil was closely followed by sugar, the others fuctuating within a narrow range and being at the same time quite dull. The stocks of the Big Four combination and those of other roads in that territory were the weakest in the regular list, though, after the opening, the declines were fractional only.

The opening was quiet, but prices showed declines extending to % per cent in Northwestern, and further losses of small fractions sustained in the early trading, though the decline in the latter was more rapid after it started, and reached 2 per cent before noon.
